OLD BUSINESS

Review of zoning regulations

- Page assignments - Katherine, Don, and Mickey spoke about areas of concern in the pages that they each reviewed. Katherine said she also referenced Jim Carroll's brief on Act 47 and advised that the CPC use the same language as the State law relevant to the zoning regs update. Don, during his review, also looked at the Cornwall Land Use and Development Regulations draft document. Don said that there was considerable time, thought and deliberation put into this draft by a previous CPC and can serve as an important reference and resource for the CPC at this time. Mickey wondered how much detail there should be in the description of the duties of a zoning administrator. Rob said that it seems to him that the most important part of the zoning regulations is information on what is allowed and not allowed in each district.
- Assessment of page assignment process - all agreed that the page approach was useful, as a way to get started, and that work groups or small teams may be planned when it is time to do a deeper dive into issues.
- Liaison with DRB and Select Board - Don B. agreed to update the Select Board at every meeting regarding progress on the zoning regulations update. When the CPC is further along in the process, feedback from the DRB will be solicited.

• Town Plan action items

- Child care - Lauren R. reached out to Chet V.D. and he is helping her make a survey.
- Status on CORA meeting:trail concept - Conor S. said that James did reach each to CORA to start a conversation and is waiting to hear from them.
- Housing update - Chet, Mickey - the housing working group met earlier this month, and heard reports from all the subgroups. The final draft of the feasibility assessment report is due in early October and will be presented at the CPC meeting in October. The traditional housing subgroup is changing their focus to exploring general financing options for affordable housing in the Village district in the future, as no land is available in the Village at this time.
